High Quality Modern Office with Character

4,641 Sq Ft (431.15 Sq M)

Location

The premises is situated immediately off the prime Theatre area of Sheffield City Centre within the Sheffield entertainment and retail district. Tudor Square is accessed from Norfolk Street, which in turn leads onto Arundel Gate and the inner ring road.

Tudor Square is a city square that has considerable heritage, retaining many of its historic features, popular with a variety of occupiers and professional businesses.

Excellent staff amenities are located on the doorstep including the Crucible & Lyceum Theatres, the Winter Gardens and St Pauls Place, as well as being within close proximity to the main transport hubs of Arundel Gate, Sheffield Transport Interchange and the main.

Description

The subject property comprises a semi-detached, Grade II Listed building, formally an art gallery in 1875, which was converted and restored in 1985 and subsequently again in 2002.

The available office is at second floor level, accessed directly from Norfolk Street into a shared stair well and lift lobby.

Internally the property has been modernised to provide a mix of open plan working areas, private offices, meeting rooms and staff amenities. The property also benefits from a feature window looking over the Crucible Theatre which provides ample natural light.
